

Business Interests and other Governance Roles

Governors are asked to declare the following information on an annual basis: any relevant business interests, other schools they govern, personal relationships between school staff, partners and relatives. Governors are also asked at the start of every Governing Body meeting if they have anything to declare and this is noted in the minutes.

Governor	Anything Declared
Brian Davies	Nothing to Declare
Paul Myers	Parish Councillor and Governor of Chailey Heritage Foundation
Carys Long	Nothing to Declare
Wendy Fallon	Nothing to Declare
Oonagh Wood	Nothing to Declare
Grahame Ward	Declared – Turner Schools Trust, Canterbury Christchurch University Audit Committee, Kent Pension Board as a retired member, undergoing work at Kite College.
Jessica Carroll	Nothing to Declare
Laura Snelling	Nothing to Declare
Mark Roberts	Senior Lecturer at Canterbury Christchurch, Works for STLS
Sarah Pizza-Drew	Nothing to Declare

Governance Roles in Other School declared

All Governors must declare any other Governance roles for other school.and these are as follows:

Mark Roberts Senior Lecturer at Canterbury Christchurch

Paul Myers - Governor of Chailey Heritage Foundation